

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Like A Watered Garden by Patti Hill

Courtesy of www.pattihillauthor.com

- * Mibby compares grief to an unfamiliar room on a moonless night and the unexpected triggers as whammies o' grief. What word picture would you use to describe grief?
- * What role does guilt play in Mibby's grief?
- * What qualities make Louise a good mentor for Mibby?
- * If you were Mibby's mentor, what would your best hopes be for her relationship with Ky? Ben? Andrea? Her mother? Margot?
- * What do Mibby's dreams and flashbacks reveal about her past and relationship with Scott?
- * If you had been Scott's best friend, how would you have counseled him in relation to Andrea?
- * In what ways did Patti Hill develop nature as a character in Like a Watered Garden?
- * What does the silver thread represent in Mibby's life?
- * What role does Blink play in the telling of Mibby's story?
- * What do you learn about the Garrett family from the Christmas video Mibby watches with Ky?
- * What role do you want Ben to play in Mibby's future?
- * How does Mibby's relationship with God change through the story?
- * When are you most amenable to God's voice?
- * What does the intersection of Tenth and Crawford represent to Mibby? Why is it important for her to go there?